

A fantastic week in fabulous surroundings

The Lost City Hotel, Dubai, UAE

I have just returned from a fantastic week in the Lost City Hotel and I am missing it already! From the fantastic views from our 17th floor balcony to the awesome aquarium, we loved it! We decided to take a taxi from the airport as the hotel had quoted us 375aed one way so we decided to chance it with a taxi at 70aed it was well worth it! The check in process was incredibly swift and we were upgraded which was even better! We had beautiful ocean views and a small balcony to sit on and enjoy them from! The food in the hotel was very nice, we ate in The Edge, The Shore and The Italian. The food at the Italian was amazing and not as expensive as I had been expecting having read some of the previous reviews. The aquarium was great, I went every day and never got bored of watching the wonderful array of fish going past. The Lost Chambers was fascinating and I saw something different each time I went there! The small Mall is also a nice touch. I was also lucky enough to enjoy the dolphin experience which I LOVED! I would highly recommend it. The hotel keeps all the day trip people in one part of the hotel and they can not access the pools and beach so it was fairly empty with lots of spare loungers to lay and celebrity spot!! The concierge desk was exceptionally helpful in organising tee times for my husband at the golf courses. It was very busy with the World Championship being held, but they called all of them and got the best times and rates for us. The hotel also has regular bus shuttles to the main malls and plenty of taxis outside, although, if you are going to one of the golf courses ask concierge for a map as we got lost each time we went as the driver only knew the Emirates club!! In all this was a fantastic week in a wonderful hotel, and I would definitely recommend it to everyone!
